1 (Proceedings began at 2:38 p.m.)

2 THE CLERK: Numbers 10 and 11 on the calendar, Kramer
3 v. Mahia, adjourned pretrial conference re: complaint, 4 adjourned motion for sanctions.

5 MR. ROSEN: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Avrum Rosen
6 for Trustee Debra Kramer.

7 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Rosen.

8 MR. GREENWALD: Good afternoon, Your Honor. Wayne
9 Greenwald for Karam Vir Dahiya, respondent.

10 THE COURT: All right.

11 MR. GREENWALD: Also with me is Mr. Cuevas.

12 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I'm glad you're 13 all here.

14 Before move to the sanctions motion, I'd like to just 15 pause for a moment on the adversary proceeding and pretrial 16 conference in which we have scheduled for today. There has 17 been -- I have focused so much on the issues and the sanctions 18 motion that it would be helpful to me to be reminded of where 19 we are in that adversary proceeding because --

20 MR. ROSEN: Sure, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: -- along with everything else here, there 22 is that.

23 MR. ROSEN: Well, Your Honor, as you -- as Your Honor
24 may or may not recall, there is new counsel in the adversary
25 proceeding.

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MR. ROSEN: And we have been engaging in settlement
3 discussions. They are quite far along.

4 THE COURT: Good.

5 MR. ROSEN: We are, I think, close to a resolution.
6 I think we're close to a number and right now we are working on 7 terms, so I am not engaged in -- we have not engaged -- we have 8 engaged in informal discovery. They gave us some documents.
9 We went through it. We're trying to -- given all the other 10 expenses in this case we're trying to do this as efficiently as 11 possible. Not that we don't always try to do that, but in this 12 case we're working through it and we're close.

13 So what I would like to do when we're done, whatever 14 else is going to go on, we'd kick back to a date. And I think 15 the pretrial kind of got lost because the last time when we 16 were here we didn't talk about it I think at all --

17 THE COURT: That's why --

18 MR. ROSEN: -- with everything else that was going on 19 and I --

20 THE COURT: -- this --

21 MR. ROSEN: -- I don't think I ever even told -- I 22 don't even think opposing new counsel even knew it was on for 23 today, but we have been in contact and I will make sure when we 24 get an adjourn date to make sure that she is aware of it.

25 THE COURT: What time frame -- and I see that we have

1 that appearance on the docket and it's a very helpful thing.
2 Sixty days, something like that. Do you think that makes 3 sense?

4 MR. ROSEN: Yeah. You can have -- why don't we see 5 what's going to go on with this, but one way or the other --

6 THE COURT: I view these as separate matters.

7 MR. ROSEN: Separate matters?

8 THE COURT: Yeah.

9 MR. ROSEN: Okay. Yeah. We -- you can pick a date
10 out. What I would like to do, Your Honor, if I could, I'd like 11 to call in a date when I find out a day when we're here on 12 other --

13 THE COURT: Exactly.

14 MR. ROSEN: -- Kramer matters --

15 THE COURT: That's fine.

16 MR. ROSEN: -- so for efficiency and we'll schedule
17 it for that. When I get back to my office I'll ask Mr. Acey 18 [Ph.] or Mr. Cantrel [Ph.] what's the next date we have that's 19 good. All right?

20 THE COURT: It sounds like it would be sooner than a 21 month.

22 MR. ROSEN: No, it would not be sooner than a month.

23 THE COURT: And I'm --

24 MR. ROSEN: What I'd like to do is probably go out 45
25 to 60 so if I resolve it, I can put the 9019 on for that day.

1 THE COURT: We can -- we'll find a date that makes 2 sense from your office's standpoint that's already a time that 3 you're here on matters for the Trustee and we'll just get this 4 on that track.

5 MR. ROSEN: That's what we try to do, Your Honor.
6 Thank you.

7 THE COURT: Good. It makes sense. All right.

8 With respect to the motion, which I -- involves 9 separate counsel, separate issue, separate record, same 10 adversary proceeding, case number, same bankruptcy case, but 11 otherwise really very little, if any, overlap at all. I would 12 like to hear from the parties -- first, from the movant -- as 13 to -- I'll try it this way and see if this is productive -- how 14 the parties propose to proceed today. I appreciate the 15 seriousness of the issues. They're a great concern to me as 16 well. There are both legal and factual matters argued in the 17 papers. There seems to be a great deal still in dispute 18 between the parties including putting on some fundamental legal 19 issues including some legal issues that seem to me perhaps to 20 be fairly straightforward in the law in this district and 21 circuit, but that's -- I'm not deciding them yet.

22 Mr. Rosen, let me hear first from you.

23 MR. ROSEN: Thank you, Your Honor. I'd like to start 24 by first dealing with a couple of procedural issues. Then I'd 25 like to go through what was filed and talk about it and tell

1 you where I think we're at and what's still in controversy and 2 what's not, all right?

3 THE COURT: Um-hum.

4 MR. ROSEN: And I know that -- well, I'll just start 5 that.

6 Your Honor, when we were last here certain things
7 were supposed to happen and almost none of them did happen.
8 The Court will recall that Mr. Dahiya was supposed to take 9 certain actions. A letter was promised to be put up within a 10 week to ten days, I believe, that he had taken certain steps
11 with the Bar Association and the things that had happened. I 12 have reminded Mr. Greenwald in conversations with him on at 13 least two occasions that that needed to happen and it has not 14 happened and is still out there as a serious issue.

15 I also -- Your Honor, an adjournment was requested.
16 You'll remember that Mr. Greenwald was willing to file what I 17 guess were called a conditional notice of appearance, which 18 was, I'll appear if I get an extension of time to answer up
19 until about a week and a half ago. And I first objected to it
20 and then with some urging from chambers I agreed to it and then 21 I gave a further extension when that date was up.
22 Mr. Greenwald said there was a press of papers. He told me the 23 attorney that was working on it had to move out of their 24 offices, so I gave it to him.

25 You can imagine my dismay and my surprise when the

1 papers that were filed were filed, though portions of them were 2 obviously written by Mr. Greenwald, and I don't think that will 3 be denied. They were neither signed by him, signed by anyone 4 in this firm, nor were they filed by his firm. Everything was 5 filed by Mr. Dahiya. Whether that was because he would not 6 sign on to some of the allegations that Mr. Dahiya was making I
7 still think it's a serious issue in and of itself. I 8 believe --

9 THE COURT: Separate issue.

10 MR. ROSEN: Okay. All right.

11 THE COURT: I agree.

12 MR. ROSEN: But --

13 THE COURT: But an additional and separate issue that 14 could be viewed as raising some questions about whether the 15 underlying issues here have fully been appreciated by the 16 parties and their counsel and I appreciate the point. I saw 17 the point in your reply.

18 MR. ROSEN: Okay.

19 THE COURT: Submissions --

20 MR. ROSEN: And --

21 THE COURT: -- that was I think the last of the 22 things that have been filed, Trustee's --

23 MR. ROSEN: Yes.

24 THE COURT: -- reply, number 35 on the docket, filed
25 on Tuesday evening.

1 MR. ROSEN: Yes, Your Honor. And I raise it not just 2 because of that issue but because, as I understood it and I may 3 be quite wrong, one of the reasons for their rather generous
4 extension of time to obtain counsel after Mr. Dahiya defaulted
5 under every deadline that was set for this Court -- by this 6 Court over a period of probably seven or eight months in this 7 matter was that there would be some objective attorney stepping
8 into this case trying to give some direction to it to -- so it 9 wasn't all over the place.

10 And as part of the example I give, at the last 11 hearing also -- and this will come back when we discuss the 12 evidentiary issues -- this Court I thought made it crystal 13 clear that this case was not about what Ms. Kramer had done or 14 did not do and was not about an indictment of the Trustee's 15 system and was not about any of that.

16 And yet, we have papers that go right back to that.
17 We have papers that even though in one place in the papers -- 18 in several places in the papers they say, this court doesn't 19 even have jurisdiction to sanction Mr. Dahiya. All right.
20 Either -- at the same time then without notice, without 21 anything else, asked for sanctions against myself and against 22 the Trustee for having brought this motion.

23 So my point on this in part of wanting those issues
24 to be clear is that from where we were in July -- all right -- 25 or June or whenever we were back here, the point of these

1 papers and what's so bad about them, before I get to the legal 2 issues, is it shows that whatever mental processes have gone on 3 with Mr. Dahiya -- and I don't begin to comprehend them, all 4 right -- he is now resolute in his belief that his actions were 5 proper, that they were a proper exercise of his legal duty to 6 his clients, and that if you read them with any degree of 7 clarity you will see that he believes it would be appropriate
8 to do the same thing again tomorrow. He is back on the horse
9 and he's tilting at windmills. And that is the most disturbing 10 part of these papers.

11 Instead of there being some recognition that this is 12 wrong -- you have in these legal papers -- you have a 13 discussion saying, well, it was okay for me to do this after 14 Judge Trust told me I couldn't do it because Judge Trust gave 15 me leave to replead this at the conclusion of the lawsuit. I 16 mean, that's not something a first year lawyer would say. Yes, 17 at the conclusion of the lawsuit the predicate for an action 18 for abuse of process, as we've said all along, is that you must 19 be in the original lawsuit. It cannot be brought as part of 20 that lawsuit. You must prevail on the merits in that lawsuit
21 and then you can first, if there is -- if there isn't immunity, 22 if you've got the right jurisdiction and everything else, then 23 you can bring that action. No recognition of that at all.
24 It's okay. I read the law, and we've got his bibliography of 25 what he read.

1 Now, one of the things that we'll talk about is, how 2 he came to all these conclusions in the five or ten minutes
3 that he spoke to these clients before he stood up and made 4 these positions at the initial pretrial and made all these 5 determinations is an interesting question.

6 Turning to -- so I think what's before us today, Your 7 Honor, are a couple of legal issues. The legal issues that I 8 see and the only real legal issues, all right, are -- are 9 whether or not the point raised clearly in the portion written 10 by Mr. Greenwald as to whether or not it all -- what the 11 definition is of a proceeding and whether or not it's in one 12 proceeding, which to me is the only real legal issue here that 13 deserves any real discussion. All right.

14 And the other issue would then be a few factual
15 allegations. If you go through their pretrial statement that 16 they filed, you will see that they admitted virtually every 17 allegation of what the Trustee said she did in going through 18 including the allegation which said that she properly commenced 19 this adversary proceeding. They admitted -- I have them here.
20 They admit -- I marked on my pleading while I was waiting so I 21 put the time to good use, Your Honor. One of the ones that 22 they marked up is, I believe, paragraph 9. They admit:

23 "On the documentary evidence provided the Trustee 24 determined that the estate had a cause of action against 25 Tozammel H. Mahia to recover the alleged fraudulent conveyance

1 of the debtor's interest in the proceeds of the sale of the 2 property to the benefit of creditors, to-wit, the amount of the 3 debtor's distributive share of the proceeds realized upon the 4 sale of the property."

5 So they've admit -- and they admit the prior. So
6 they've admitted that what the Trustee did was in the proper 7 exercise of her fiduciary duty and that she made an 8 investigation. Their factual point is that they say is that 9 the duty -- the Trustee -- and by the way, they do not attach 10 any evidence to their pretrial. Not a single piece of paper is 11 going into evidence on the -- is an allegation which has no
12 legal citation, no logical citation, that somehow this 13 defendant held only what they call bare legal title, which is 14 something I've had thrown out to me as a trustee's attorney a 15 lot of times and I've yet to see any case law on it, all right, 16 as a defense. And that the Trustee had a duty -- they sued her 17 because she had a duty to go out determined that this 18 affirmed -- unclad affirmative defense, that might have been 19 raised that may not even exist, that she had to determine 20 whether or not it existed and if she thought it might she had 21 to not bring the action in the first place. That's what 22 they're saying. All right. That is the logic of their 23 argument and that is their -- that -- so that's what they are 24 castigating the Trustee for, that she did not do that, even 25 though they admit that she did everything else right. Did

1 absolutely everything else right.

2 So in terms of the factual allegations, we've got 3 the -- the issue is whether or not this action was brought in 4 bad faith or not. And Your Honor will recall and I note that 5 neither side I think has ordered the transcript, though I will.
6 Both in the prior papers and I think three or four times on the 7 record one time Mr. Dahiya has admitted that he brought this 8 action for leverage because he believed that trustees were 9 abusing poor immigrants and that we did not understand family
10 structure and all those other arguments, so he felt justified 11 to bring this action for leverage against trustees, and that 12 brings me to my legal argument.

13 The legal argument is that they raise is that he 14 would have had to sue her within this case multiple times for 15 it to come under 1927 or for this Court to be able to exercise
16 its inherent authority. Now, that's not what the case law -- 17 and they string-cite a bunch of cases. When you look at 18 them -- and I raise this in my reply -- when you look at those 19 cases they all deal with courts dealing with multiple 20 proceedings and looking at a course of conduct because it makes 21 no sense if you can't look at a course of contact. It gives 22 carte blanche to defendants to bring multiple lawsuits in 23 multiple venues.

24 What the case law does say, and I agree with them and 25 we did not seek it, is that the court that has it before it can

1 only deal with the legal fees and the damages that arise in 2 this proceeding both on issues of comity, on issues of 3 jurisdiction, and for a whole host of other reasons and we 4 didn't seek those damages.

5 THE COURT: One is the question arguably of what is 6 the proof and another is a question arguably of what are the 7 damages.

8 MR. ROSEN: Right. And you can't -- and we -- so we 9 raise all of those issues as to the proof of what the intent
10 was in doing this and the multiple actions are not the actions 11 within this lawsuit; they are the multiple lawsuits against my 12 client in different cases. That is the activity complained of 13 against my client and against other trustees. The other 14 trustees I do not represent, but it is there as proof of intent 15 and it is there as proof of a course of dealing with doing this 16 even though prior judges have said, you can't. It is not a 17 legal -- it is not legally permissible and even if prior judges 18 didn't say that. It's black letter law and abusive process.
19 And we've been involved in this for a year. I still have no
20 idea what the constitutional tort is. Just alleging a 21 constitutional tort, no basis, no allegations, no nothing.

22 The other issue raised in the papers and, again, I'll 23 lay this one -- this one was also clearly written not by 24 Mr. Dahiya -- was the argument that my client had to go through 25 the process of bringing a 9019 -- bringing a 9011 letter,

1 making the demand, having the motion to dismiss made, and go 2 through all these steps, all of which would have caused her to 3 have her carrier do it because, as you know, if you take 4 actions on your own once you've reported something to your 5 carrier it voids your coverage. You have to get their okay.
6 You have to do the counsel. You have to go through the 7 retainer.

8 So what their argument is that she had to suffer the 9 exact harm that they were using as leverage against her in 10 order to be able to have the cause of action against him. She 11 had to make her situation that much worse where she went 12 through her retainer. They had to pay out under attorney's 13 fees instead of resolving it the way she did.

14 And interestingly enough, they make much in their 15 papers of talking about the fact that Mr. Dahiya gave 16 adjournments. Yeah, he gave adjournments but he kept 17 conditioning those adjournments on attempting to try and get a 18 settlement because he knew exactly what her predicament was.
19 He knew exactly what he was doing and the harm it was going to 20 cause.

21 So, Your Honor, in terms of the factual issues that 22 are here now, I think he's already admitted his intent. If we 23 need to put him through it on the stand, I'd be happy to do 24 that. In terms of the Trustee other than me -- and probably 25 only at a damages phase putting in what her actual damages were

1 in terms of what her increased premium is and her increased 2 deductible is, they've already admitted to those issues and 3 she's not on trial here. What her -- you know, and that came 4 out the last time.

5 So I think we've got legal argument. I think you've 6 got a couple of decisions to make on the law that's been 7 presented before you which is now fully briefed and that if 8 need be if we think we need an evidentiary record on 9 Mr. Dahiya, I'm prepared to call him on adverse direct either 10 today or whenever you want to do it and go forward with it.
11 And that I think I have covered what I wanted to say on this.

12 THE COURT: The matter before the Court is the 13 Trustee's motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1927. Questions framed 14 by the record, as I've tried to piece it together, and there's 15 a big picture and then there is my job, which is to focus on 16 the motion -- my precise job to answer the question posed by 17 the motion whether sanctions pursuant to §1927 should be 18 imposed. These questions seem to me to include, but 19 undoubtedly are not limited to whether or not Bankruptcy Court
20 has the ability to hear and determine the 1927 motions --

21 MR. ROSEN: Well, that --

22 THE COURT: -- which I believe I have addressed in my 23 own decisions -- reported decisions in favor of jurisdiction in 24 the Bankruptcy Court --

25 MR. ROSEN: Your Honor --

1 THE COURT: -- the ability of the Bankruptcy Court --

2 MR. ROSEN: And one point on that. One of the things
3 that is so ludicrous about these papers is that in that section 4 when they are addressing the issue of the -- what's the axe, 5 all of those cases deal with -- both out of this Circuit and 6 out of the Third Circuit deal with the fact that the Bankruptcy
7 Court has jurisdiction to hear the matter.

8 As a matter of fact, the main case they relied upon, 9 the Bankruptcy Court originally ruled that they didn't have 10 jurisdiction for a different reason. It went up to the Third 11 Circuit. I gave the cites in the papers. And the Third 12 Circuit decided, by the way, they didn't talk about whether or 13 not they have jurisdiction to do it in the first place because 14 they turned it down, but we're sua sponte telling you, you're a 15 division of the District Court and you've got jurisdiction to 16 do it.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. ROSEN: And --

19 THE COURT: So there's that question --

20 MR. ROSEN: And, Judge Peck's --

21 THE COURT: -- can I even --

22 MR. ROSEN: -- decision says he has jurisdiction.

23 Judge Morrison's decision says he has jurisdiction, the Second 24 Circuit. There's definitely a split in the circuits, Your 25 Honor, but we're not one of the circuits that says you can't do

1 it.

2 THE COURT: No. It does -- it does seem that within 3 this Circuit that question is rather clear. But, you know, I'm 4 open to any argument supported by the existing law or a 5 reasonable basis -- a well-founded argument in support of a 6 change in the law, and I have in mind the historical 7 characterization of what the standard under Rule 11 was, Rule 8 9011, but so there's that question.

9 There's another question in the context of 1927 which 10 addresses and has addressed for a long time -- a long time it's 11 been on the books -- the multiplication or vexatious
12 multiplication of proceedings. And here I find two 13 inconsistent strains in the argument in general: one seems to 14 be whatever you do, Judge, you can't look at other cases where 15 this counsel's behavior has been called into question or raised 16 issues and to which the Trustee points here on the one hand; on 17 the other, you can't vexatiously multiply proceedings. This is 18 only one proceeding.

19 I think I can navigate those waters. I'm comfortable 20 that I understand the meaning of 1927 and based on my 21 experience on the bench I think I can interpret and apply those 22 words. I think this is one of the jobs that the section gives 23 to judges to hear the record and to determine whether those 24 nouns and adjectives -- and you don't find a lot of sections 25 that use both -- whether they have been met -- whether that

1 standard has been met.

2 So I'm -- you know, I need to understand that better,
3 but I don't yet see in the arguments before me from Mr. Dahiya
4 and his counsel, and I do want to understand better, who is 5 representing Mr. Dahiya here and why I'm still receiving papers
6 filed this week saying, in effect, Mr. Dahiya is pro se. I 7 don't understand that. There are professionalism issues that 8 now affect more than one counsel, I think. But I -- if as it 9 at least preliminarily appears to me, the question is simply,
10 how do you apply a difficult standard, then I think I can do 11 that.

12 So another potential legal question, but a legal 13 question that I think may really come down to simply 14 articulating the standard what needs to be established here, I 15 was asking myself, do I have jurisdiction; if yes, what's the 16 cause of action; state it; what are the elements; what's the 17 record. I don't know why I should be doing different than that 18 here.

19 So moving to the next question arguably raised as a 20 legal or structural matter on how to proceed, it seemed at our 21 prior hearing that there was at least a prospect of disputed 22 issues of fact. It seems to me that the -- in general, the 23 point in time that consequences attached is not a hindsight 24 inquiry, but a -- it's not clear to me it's a benefit of 25 hindsight so much as an inquiry to maybe looking at what was

1 done at the time it was done. I appreciate that litigation 2 steps may well be taken in part for strategic reasons, but 3 there is an outer boundary defined by 28 U.S.C. §1927 by 4 standards of practice, by the professionalism rules that all 5 lawyers are under. And by this Court's inherent authority to 6 oversee the practice of the Court before it that that does set 7 some standards.

8 Not every tactical move can be taken consistent with 9 §1927 and sound practice. And I think those courts and I 10 expect in this courtroom lawyers feel free and welcome to 11 pursue the zealous advocacy that they are required to pursue as 12 professionals on behalf of their clients, but zealous advocacy 13 is not a license to say or do absolutely anything. And to the 14 extent that the line is crossed, we're no longer looking at 15 zealous advocacy; we're looking at violation of statutes and 16 professional standards. It is not persuasive advocacy to 17 advance claims or arguments strategically or tactically that 18 are utterly unfounded in the law and simply presented with -- 19 whether with or without the appropriate research for purposes 20 of tipping the balance on inappropriate grounds in favor of the 21 lawyer or the client. This is the framework within which every 22 lawyer practices in this and every other court and rarely, but 23 occasionally, it's a framework we have to look at closely, make 24 sure it hasn't been undermined.

25 So those are some of the things I'm thinking about.

1 I see from the papers that there may be disputed facts, we may 2 need to make that record. We will do it. I remain very 3 interested from a case management standpoint and also from a 4 sense of responsibility to the process to hear from the parties
5 about the kind of remedial steps. There may be a better word, 6 adjective, that could be taken to address the situation that 7 gave rise first to the concern and then to the motion. The 8 Trustee and her counsel made clear that this wasn't something 9 that was done the first time or even the second time that these 10 concerns arose and I appreciate that. I appreciate the 11 forbearance and I also appreciate what became ultimately the 12 decision to make this motion and pursue these issues, so --

13 MR. ROSEN: Your Honor, I would make one more point
14 and then I'll sit down and let the others have their chance.

15 Judge, one of the cases they cite -- or actually one 16 of the cases that -- Shattof [Ph.] that they cite, the 17 interesting cases again which Judge Peck dealt with with 18 similar issues, albeit he didn't do it under 1927 because the 19 attorney was disbarred so he did it under 105, which it says
20 is -- mirrors the provisions of that. But then he sent it over 21 and I looked at -- gave the cites to Judge Winfield's decision 22 who did what we -- who provides you with the statute -- well, 23 the case authority at least to do exactly one of the things we 24 asked.

25 THE COURT: Judge Winfield in the District of New

1 Jersey?

2 MR. ROSEN: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. ROSEN: Yeah. Where she was dealing with -- I 5 mean, this was a serial file or a disbarred attorney who 6 filed -- he filed in the Eastern District before -- in the 7 District Court, he filed in the Southern District. He violated 8 her injunctions not to file anywhere and she listed a rather 9 extensive injunction which is actually authority for the type 10 of injunctive relief that we requested in the motion, which is 11 the remedial portion to make sure that, you know, this can't 12 happen without prior consent of the Court, if he's going to sue 13 a trustee that there has to be made a showing.

14 You know, he can do what he has to do to represent 15 his client. He just has to make the showing that it's required 16 before putting a trustee in that position, as well as the 17 expense. I mean, the fact of the matter is, the creditors in 18 this particular case should not bear the expense of this. I
19 mean -- and I do -- and I am leaving that out of my discussions 20 in attempting to resolve the underlying case. She said they're 21 not connected, but they are. I'm trying not to make those 22 parties pay for their first choice of counsel for having run up 23 the bills and now have to get paid so that there can be a 24 distribution to creditors.

25 I'll sit down, Your Honor. I probably had some more,

1 but --

2 THE COURT: All right. No. I'm sure and -- it's -- 3 I'm not asking either side to begin, never mind the end of 4 their argument on the merits here.

5 Mr. Greenwald, please, I need you up to the podium.
6 I need to hear from you and I have some questions for you.
7 First of all, good afternoon. You have a lot of matters going 8 on this afternoon.

9 MR. GREENWALD: Good afternoon, Your Honor, and --

10 THE COURT: My goal is to make progress on each and 11 all of them.

12 MR. GREENWALD: And thank you for your flexibility on 13 the calendar this afternoon.

14 THE COURT: We're doing our best.

15 MR. GREENWALD: Thank you. I guess, let me state 16 preliminarily there are questions about the papers and my 17 involvement. If Your Honor wants to save that for another day, 18 fine; if Your Honor wants me to do -- to respond to them now, 19 I'm glad to do that.

20 THE COURT: Did you file the papers that were 21 filed --

22 MR. GREENWALD: I did not file them. Mr. Dahiya 23 filed them.

24 THE COURT: Did you write the papers?

25 MR. GREENWALD: I edited a portion of them, Your

1 Honor.

2 THE COURT: Did you write the papers?

3 MR. GREENWALD: I did not write them. I did edit 4 them.

5 THE COURT: Are you counsel for Mr. Dahiya?

6 MR. GREENWALD: I am now counsel for Mr. Dahiya, yes.

7 THE COURT: What is your understanding as to the 8 ability of a client to file papers --

9 MR. GREENWALD: He is --

10 THE COURT: -- when they're represented by counsel?

11 MR. GREENWALD: He is still -- he was -- he's still 12 an attorney here and he's still a party in the case and he 13 had --

14 THE COURT: Answer my question, please. I apologize
15 for the interruption, but I'm aware of the --

16 MR. GREENWALD: I understand.

17 THE COURT: -- record -- facts.

18 MR. GREENWALD: Mr. Dahiya had access to ECF and I
19 was unable to file them by 4:00 o'clock.

20 THE COURT: Does that explain why he signed them, 21 too?

22 MR. GREENWALD: No. I did not -- I did not fully 23 review the papers, Your Honor. As a matter of fact, I did
24 not -- I mean, I did not write them, but I did get to review
25 and make some edits on them. Mr. Dahiya also did not write

1 them, although he did get a chance to edit them as well.

2 Considering --

3 THE COURT: Did any lawyer write them?

4 MR. GREENWALD: Oh, yes. Yes, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: What is your role in the case, as you see 6 it? Is your firm counsel to Mr. Dahiya or are you just going 7 to make editing comments on briefs --

8 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor --

9 THE COURT: -- from time to time written by other 10 people and filed by your client?

11 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, at this point on 12 considering how -- considering how these papers were done we 13 will -- I will do that. What had happened, Your Honor, if I 14 may --

15 THE COURT: You will do what?

16 MR. GREENWALD: I will make sure that I write the 17 papers, that I file the papers, that I'm the one responsible 18 because -- Your Honor, if I may, there are several people who 19 are involved, friends of Mr. Dahiya, who were involved in his 20 defense and they had undertaken to write the papers. And I 21 agreed to do some research and had done research, had agreed to 22 argue and go to trial if necessary, but I was under the 23 Division of Labor, for lack of a better term. I was not 24 responsible for writing them, but -- Your Honor, I'm being 25 candid with Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: I appreciate it. Are you aware of our 2 court's rule on limited representation --

3 MR. GREENWALD: I --

4 THE COURT: -- and retention of counsel?

5 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor --

6 THE COURT: Would you represent any other client this 7 way, Mr. Greenwald? Or would Cuevas and Greenwald be retained 8 in a situation where your bankruptcy client was going to get a 9 team together to submit papers and file them themselves and 10 maybe you'd --

11 MR. GREENWALD: Your --

12 THE COURT: -- edit them if you had time?

13 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor --

14 THE COURT: Is that how you practice, Mr. Greenwald?

15 MR. GREENWALD: No, I do not, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Understand that you have accepted a 17 retention to defend questions of professionalism, but I must 18 say I'm not sure you're getting off to the best start.

19 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, I'm not --

20 THE COURT: I say that not trying to be funny, not 21 trying to trivialize the issues here. I think it is important 22 to get people's attention in a way that we perhaps do not have 23 it yet as to what is expected as a matter of standards of 24 practice. What is leverage and what is advocacy?

25 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, what I did was not for

1 the purposes of leverage or accuracy. It was for the purpose
2 of meeting a deadline.

3 In terms of my own practices, Your Honor, I adhere 4 vigorously to Rule 11, which is one of the reasons since I did 5 not get to read the entire document and revise it that I could 6 not in good faith sign it.

7 THE COURT: Oh, of course, it begins under Dahiya and 8 the Dahiya law offices or when counsel respectfully submits 9 this statement, so it's not written for you to submit either.

10 MR. GREENWALD: You're right.

11 THE COURT: I think you need to consider carefully at 12 your firm what exactly you've undertaken --

13 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor --

14 THE COURT: -- and whether this is an appropriate 15 retention for your firm.

16 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, I appreciate the 17 admonition. I really do.

18 THE COURT: It's not an admonition. It's a request.

19 MR. GREENWALD: Well, I look at it this way. I
20 believe it is criticism that I'm taking -- I hope Your Honor 21 can see -- very much to heart and making commitments as a 22 result of it. And I apologize to the extent that I offended 23 anyone.

24 THE COURT: It's not a question of offense. It's a 25 question of whether --

1 MR. GREENWALD: I understand, but I'm saying or 2 offended any rule --

3 THE COURT: -- you're meeting the standards --

4 MR. GREENWALD: I understand. Any --

5 THE COURT: -- and the standards of practice that --

6 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, I understand what you're 7 saying. And I think Your Honor would agree that in just about 8 every other situation this has never occurred.

9 THE COURT: This situation does stand alone in many 10 respects.

11 MR. GREENWALD: And it will not reoccur in this case.
12 There was a delegation which did not occur and I will take 13 responsibility for it, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Well, I've framed the quest -- I've 15 identified some of the questions. I don't think I can say that 16 I have yet managed to frame them in the clearest way possible, 17 but do you stand on your argument that I do not have 18 jurisdiction to hear or the ability to hear a motion for relief 19 under 28 U.S.C. §1927?

20 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, I see it as a question.

21 THE COURT: I need to know -- I need to know what 22 your -- what your argument is.

23 MR. GREENWALD: There is --

24 THE COURT: To con --

25 MR. GREENWALD: There is a division -- I recognize

1 that there is a division in the circuits as to whether or not 2 a Bankruptcy Court is a court of the United States as to 3 whether or not it has jurisdiction and I recognize that there's 4 a division in the circuits.

5 THE COURT: Is there controlling law in this Circuit?

6 MR. GREENWALD: The controlling law in this Circuit
7 would say that Your Honor does have jurisdiction.

8 THE COURT: Would it therefore at least arguably be 9 reversible error for me to find otherwise? Mr. Greenwald, 10 you're --

11 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor --

12 THE COURT: So you've just told me there's 13 controlling law that I have jurisdiction.

14 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor --

15 THE COURT: Let me move to my next question. Does 16 Mr. Dahiya continue to argue that I do not because I'll take 17 that issue first. You know, if I don't have jurisdiction --

18 UNKNOWN SPEAKER: Your Honor --

19 THE COURT: I need to hear from one lawyer at a time.

20 MR. GREENWALD: Thank you. May I speak with 21 Mr. Dahiya?

22 THE COURT: Of course you may. Well, you may confer 23 with your partner and also with your client. And I'll -- 24 whatever your position is, it is. I'll do whatever is 25 appropriate in response. And I have some questions for you if

1 I don't have -- if your view is that I don't have the ability
2 to hear it, is it subject matter jurisdiction? Can I write 3 report and recommendation? Are you going to withdraw the 4 reference? Would you like me to send you sua sponte to the 5 chief judge of the District Court on this issue? You want to 6 take this issue up over there? I need to understand what the 7 consequences are of your position, if that is your position and 8 it's -- you're just having acknowledged that the controlling 9 law in this Circuit --

10 MR. GREENWALD: That question is just --

11 THE COURT: -- supports it.

12 MR. GREENWALD: But I do -- there's no question as to 13 controlling law of the Circuit. Your Honor had asked does it 14 mean that you'd be reversed on appeal, I don't know.

15 THE COURT: I did not ask you that nor would I ever 16 ask a lawyer that.

17 MR. GREENWALD: I'm sorry.

18 THE COURT: Mr. Greenwald, you may confer.

19 MR. GREENWALD: I thought I --

20 THE COURT: You've asked for the opportunity to 21 confer.

22 MR. GREENWALD: I thought that's what I heard, Your 23 Honor, and the answer is, I don't know.

24 [Pause in the proceedings.]

25 THE COURT: Mr. Greenwald, do you think it makes

1 sense to go off the record? I am happy to go off --

2 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor --

3 THE COURT: -- if it will be productive. I'm not 4 trying to point in one direction or another. I just -- as I 5 said, there's a sequence of questions here, and the first is,
6 you've made the argument, your client has made the argument
7 that I don't have the ability to proceed.

8 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, I'm grateful for the 9 opportunity and the considerations. I have spoken with my 10 client and with Mr. Cuevas and the issue in terms of 11 jurisdiction -- yes, I understand Cahos [Ph.] is Second Circuit
12 law. However, there's a question of the impact of Stern v.
13 Marshall on the issue of jurisdiction under 19 -- of over 1927
14 proceeding.

15 So Mr. Dahiya -- and you'll correct me if I'm 16 wrong -- believes that --

17 THE COURT: You're his counsel.

18 MR. GREENWALD: I'm his counsel. Mr. Dahiya takes 19 the position that the Court does not have jurisdiction over 20 this motion.

21 THE COURT: You're counsel. I need to know what the 22 position is.

23 MR. GREENWALD: I am saying that as a result of Stern 24 v. Marshall there's a question -- a good-faith question as to 25 what the Second Circuit would do with respect to its decision

1 in Cahos.

2 THE COURT: Just --

3 MR. ROSEN: Your Honor, may I make one point?

4 THE COURT: Sure. Is that in your papers?

5 MR. GREENWALD: Is that in our papers? I believe it
6 is, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Could you tell me where? Mr. Greenwald, 8 could you tell me where, please?

9 MR. GREENWALD: I'm getting a copy of the papers,
10 Your Honor --

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 MR. GREENWALD: -- so I can respond to the question.

13 THE COURT: All right.

14 MR. GREENWALD: Thank you.

15 MR. ROSEN: Your Honor, while he's getting the 16 papers, one minor point.

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MR. ROSEN: Even if they're right, as I've pointed 19 out in my papers, they've waived it by requesting sanctions.
20 They can't invoke this Court's equitable jurisdiction to award
21 sanctions at the same time they're saying the Court does not 22 have jurisdiction.

23 THE COURT: That certainly was an issue in the Stern
24 case.

25 MR. GREENWALD: Okay. Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Yes.

2 MR. GREENWALD: On page 15 at the bottom.

3 THE COURT: Of which page -- of which one of your 4 papers?

5 MR. GREENWALD: On the -- on the last set of papers
6 that we provided to the Court.

7 THE COURT: Do you know what the number is on the 8 docket? That's the papers filed by Mr. Dahiya?

9 MR. GREENWALD: Response of Karam Dahiya and Dahiya
10 Law Offices and that's on the bottom of page 15.

11 THE COURT: All right. Doesn't that mean I can issue 12 a report and recommendation?

13 MR. GREENWALD: I believe that you can, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: They wouldn't object to that, that if you 15 believe that I can. Do you -- so is it -- does it address that 16 issue fully if I say I believe I have the jurisdiction and to 17 the extent I don't following the logic of some of the Local 18 Rule amendments that have been adopted around the Circuit I can 19 explicitly find in the absence of such a Local Rule here that 20 to the extent it is construed by a reviewing court that I did 21 not, then I deem these to be report recommendation? I don't 22 think you've made a motion to withdraw the reference, have you?

23 MR. GREENWALD: No, there is no --

24 THE COURT: Do you want to be in the Dist -- do you
25 want this issue in the District Court, Mr. Greenwald?

1 MR. GREENWALD: Mr. Dahiya has expressed his desire
2 to have it heard in District Court, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: I'm not sure who I'm talking to,
4 Mr. Greenwald.

5 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, I have --

6 THE COURT: Your position is that you would like to 7 be in the District Court on this issue.

8 MR. GREENWALD: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Well, that's good for me to know.
10 I'll think about whether there is some sort of direction that 11 should be made simply to transfer it. It might be appropriate 12 to the extent that that court also supervises our Bar and there 13 are professionalism issues here of many types. And I would -- 14 if I issue some sort of sua sponte order if I have the 15 jurisdiction to do that, and I don't know, I would be spelling 16 out all of the issues that I think need to be addressed because 17 I think there are many.

18 But let's step back from that for a moment. You've 19 indicated that you -- while you dispute that I have 20 jurisdiction, you do not dispute that I would have the ability 21 to issue important recommendation, proposed findings and 22 conclusions. Is that right?

23 MR. GREENWALD: I do not dispute that, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. And I take it that to the 25 extent that courts have found that consent that Stern v.

1 Marshall does not modify the consent jurisdiction of the 2 Bankruptcy Court to issue a final judgment as a unit of the 3 District Court would your client consent to this Court entering 4 a final judgment on this motion?

5 MR. GREENWALD: Forgive me, Your Honor. Your 6 question was? I'm sorry.

7 THE COURT: Do you consent -- to the extent that 8 there is an issue under Stern v. Marshall or under -- of 9 jurisdiction the law as articulated I -- be it not so much as 10 subject matter jurisdiction but its ability to enter a final 11 judgment would your -- do you consent assuming for purposes --
12 assuming that I do not -- and I don't know that I have reached 13 that conclusion -- do you consent to this Court entering a 14 final judgment?

15 MR. GREENWALD: If I may confer with my client --

16 THE COURT: Please --

17 MR. GREENWALD: -- briefly, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Please.

19 MR. GREENWALD: Thank you very much. Actually, Your 20 Honor had offered us an off-the-record moment before. May we 21 have that again?

22 THE COURT: Okay. We can go off the record.

23 (Off the record at 3:24 p.m.)

24 (Back on the record at 5:00 p.m.)

25 THE CLERK: Second call on the matters of Kramer v.

1 Mahia.

2 MR. ROSEN: You're batting a thousand today, Your 3 Honor. We have a proposed settlement that I will briefly put 4 on the record and then we will -- I would ask for a control
5 date and we'll paper it up. All right.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 MR. ROSEN: The settlement is fairly short and sweet.
8 Mr. Dahiya and the Dahiya Law Offices will agree that they will 9 not bring any action against any standing Chapter 7 Trustee in 10 the Eastern District without getting prior approval of the 11 Court on notice to the party. He has agreed that, and we have 12 agreed to accept and I'll apportion it between my firm and the 13 Trustee -- we'll put that in the stipulation -- to pay the sum 14 of $10,000.00 for the costs of the motion and that will be 15 payable at the rate of $500.00 a month until it is paid off.

16 There will be a confession of judgment. I don't want 17 to keep this case open for the two years. So they'll be a 18 confession of judgment for that for the sum of $20,000.00 in 19 case there is a default in either the injunctive provisions or 20 in the monetary provisions. There will be appropriate notice
21 in cure periods in that it will work out. If they want ten 22 days that's fine. We'll do that matter and that will resolve
23 this motion.

24 I'd just like counsel to acknowledge that those are 25 the basic terms and -- so that we know we have a record on

1 that. Then if you can give us a date out a couple of weeks so 2 we can -- this don't require a 9019.

3 THE COURT: Tell me the date that --

4 MR. ROSEN: I don't think it's a resolution of a -- if 5 we can just do a stipulation and order.

6 THE COURT: I think that's right. If you don't -- so 7 you need a date for the pretrial but not a further date on 8 the --

9 MR. ROSEN: Right. Well, no, the pretrial I'm going 10 to call you. I'll work that out. I just want a control date 11 on this motion to make sure that --

12 THE COURT: Just --

13 MR. ROSEN: To make sure it gets done.

14 THE COURT: Okay. First of all, Mr. Greenwald, can 15 you confirm what Mr. Rosen has said?

16 MR. GREENWALD: Your Honor, I do. I'm just not quite 17 sure if whether I heard one other point that we had talked 18 before, that in the event there is a default on either there 19 will be a ten day notice and cure period.

20 MR. ROSEN: Yes, I said that.

21 MR. GREENWALD: I wasn't sure whether you did or you 22 did not.

23 THE COURT: I didn't hear the ten days but I heard the 24 notice and cure and I think the kind of language I look for 25 must very familiar by now that before a self executing

1 provision self executes as I -- it won't be self executing. It 2 will be a serving and filing of an affidavit, an affidavit of 3 non compliance and proposed final order which may be entered 4 without further notice or opportunity to be heard. So 5 something like that but we're now far down the road.

6 MR. ROSEN: My only problem on that, Your Honor, on 7 this one -- we can try and work that out. I don't want to have 8 to spend the money to reopen the case because the case is -- if 9 it happens far enough down the line this case is going to be 10 closed and down, final report will be filed, it will be done.

11 THE COURT: Hopefully there can be a way to reflect 12 that in what would be in the final order -- in the proposed 13 order that would be submitted that will come to me. Is this -- 14 what is the time period? Is this a forever injunction?

15 MR. ROSEN: Well, it's -- I was planning for it, yes.

16 THE COURT: So there will come a time where I may no
17 longer -- if it's twenty to thirty years down the road it's a 18 question of who retires first I suppose.

19 MR. ROSEN: That's right.

20 MR. DAHIYA: I disagree it's a lifelong -- people, 21 minorities are suffering.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Dahiya, I encourage you to take your 23 lawyer's advice. Have a seat.

24 MR. DAHIYA: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Any order of a court is subject to further

1 order of the court. I would not resist agreeing to what may 2 well be required by law in all events as I understand the law
3 in this Circuit. I know this is not easy but I urge you to 4 not -- to reflect as opposed to react to what you are hearing.
5 All right.

6 MR. DAHIYA: As an officer of the Court I should be 7 given a chance to voice my concern.

8 THE COURT: Mr. Dahiya, you're a client. You're a 9 client.

10 MR. DAHIYA: I'm an officer of the Court also, Your 11 Honor.

12 MR. ROSEN: Today you're a client.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Rosen, I'll look for whatever you
14 submit, whatever the parties submit. We do obviously need a 15 control date in every matter if it's unresolved and the control 16 date I'm going to suggest it will be October 23rd at 9:30. Does 17 that work?

18 MR. ROSEN: 9/23 --

19 THE COURT: Ten, October. October.

20 MR. ROSEN: 10/23. I lost a month there. Sorry, Your 21 Honor. At 9:30?

22 THE COURT: 10/23 at 9:30. All right.

23 MR. ROSEN: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

25 MR. DAHIYA: Can I be heard, Your Honor?

1 THE COURT: No, the matter -- we're done. Mr.
2 Dahiya --

3 MR. DAHIYA: Just one thing, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Mr. Dahiya, you have lawyers representing 5 you.
